ACTIVITIES

Situated within 30 acres of woodland and gardens in scenic Glen of the Downs, The Glenview Hotel is the perfect venue for your outdoor activities, providing the ultimate location for those sedentary and exhilarating team building events. The Orchard Centre is a specialist provider to companies and organisations who require a dedicated venue for Team Building, Training, Conferences, Incentives and Special Events.

The Orchard Centre's team building and activity exercises are focused on the integration of fun activities with a structured programme that provides a real return for companies

The spacious grounds at The hotel provide excellent facilities for these innovative team building and activity programmes. From all the fun and motivation of The Irish Olympics and Orchard Antics to a Countryside Treasure Hunt in the woodlands of the hotel or a little bit more serious like Jungle Challenge or Globe Trekker consider all your options for your event.

There are also numerous well known attractions and activities within 'a stones throw' of the Glenview Hotel & Leisure Club. Below is a list of some of the better known locations that will be of interest to you. The Glenview Staff will be more than happy to give you any additional information you require about our surrounding area.

If Outdoor Pursuits are what you are looking for, you will find horseriding, fishing, quadsports and hovercrafting among others. We also have the Glenview Book of Walks which cater for the lazy to the ambitious – most of these walks start and finish at the Hotel.

OUTDOOR PURSUITS

❖ The Orchard Centre

Championship 18 Hole Golf Course

❖ Bray Golf Club

Bray Golf Club is a magnificent USGA-standard parkland course, set in nearly 200 acres, combining stunning scenery with a classic layout. The course has been in play for a little over 3 years and was designed by Des Smyth and Declan Brannigan.

Described as a striking example of modern design with old style golfing values, Bray provides the perfect environment for all golfers.

❖ Charlesland Golf Club

A true surf and turf style test of golf, designed by one of Ireland's most celebrated and prolific course designer Eddie Hackett, this course is a challenging but fair test of golf. A magnificent 7000 yard championship course which skirts the Irish Sea for the best part of the front nine, the home run is as true parkland.

❖ Delgany Golf Club

Recently remodelled with sand based greens to USPGA specifications, Delgany Golf Course is surrounded by beautiful wooded countryside and breathtaking scenery, with hill and sea views

❖ Glen of the Downs Golf Club (Preferential Rates apply)

USPGA Specification golf course. Stunning location

❖ Greystones Golf Club

Founded in 1895, Greystones is one of Ireland's longest established golf courses. It is adjacent to the Wicklow Mountains and offers wonderful panoramas of Dublin Bay.

❖ Powerscourt Golf Club

From the moment you drive through the gates of Powerscourt you are immediately overwhelmed by the splendour of the 1000-acre estate. Including a 36-hole golf course and clubhouse with a warm and friendly atmosphere and stunning balconies that overlook each of the 18th greens

❖ Rathsallagh Golf Club

Designed by Christy O Connor Jnr & Peter McEvoy this golf course has rapidly taken its place as one of the top golf courses in Ireland. Home to important domestic tournaments, many regard Rathsallagh as the best parkland course in Ireland. Measuring 7200 yards from the Medal Tees, Rathsallagh is one of the best laid out courses you could play, several lakes and small streams meander their way across the fairways creating a USPGA feel about the design. The undulating countryside creates the perfect golf terrain which proves a great test for golfers but is fair to all.

Local Attractions

❖ Glendalough

Glendalough has earned its reputation as the most popular place for visitors in the Wicklow Mountains National Park. 'The valley of the two lakes' is famous for its wild beauty, its rich spiritual history and its many archeological sites. It's an area steeped in history and atmosphere, with wonderful mountain walks, woodland trails and lakeside rambles. Dotted around the valley's twin lakes are a profusion of archeological sites of interest including a stone caher, a number of early Christian monastic churches, a round tower and a medieval cathedral

❖ Glenroe Open Farm

This family run farm is one of Wicklow's top tourist attractions and here you will find lots of farm animals and pets, outdoor playground, traditional thatched cottage with exhibits, coffee shop and gift shop. From Summer 2006 the farm also has a nature walk, sensory garden and secret garden to visit.

❖ Kilruddery House and Garden

Kilruddery House has been home to the Brabazon family (The Earls of Meath) since 1618. The house was remodelled in the 1820s. Kilruddery has the most extensive early formal gardens dating from the 1680's, and are still in their original style today

❖ Powerscourt Gardens & Waterfall

Powerscourt is one of the world's greatest gardens and the highest Waterfall in Ireland. The gardens are comprised of formal gardens, sweeping terraces, rambling walks, ornamental lakes and over 200 varieties of trees and shrubs. The 18th century Palladian House incorporates a variety of shops, terrace café and house exhibition
